

Directions to East Surrey Hospital

From M25 (junction 8) Reigate Hill

Follow A217 down Reigate Hill, go over the level crossing and follow the signs marked Gatwick A217 through the Reigate one way system. When you have passed the cinema (on your right), at the next traffic lights turn left into Bell Street. Continue straight up the A217 onto Cockshot Hill. When you get to the bottom of Cockshot Hill there are some traffic lights, turn left and follow this road (Woodhatch Road). At mini roundabout, bear right and continue for 1 mile. After this distance turn left following A&E signs. At the staggered junction traffic lights go straight ahead into Three Arch Road and continue to the hospital in Canada Avenue.

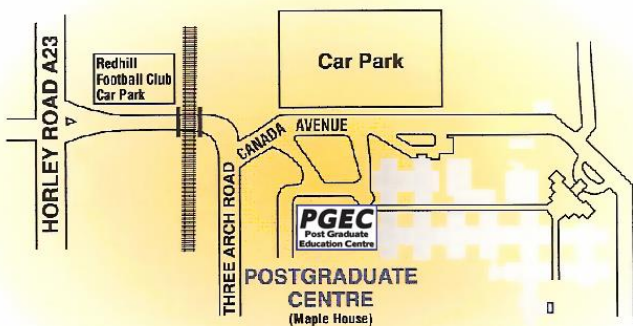

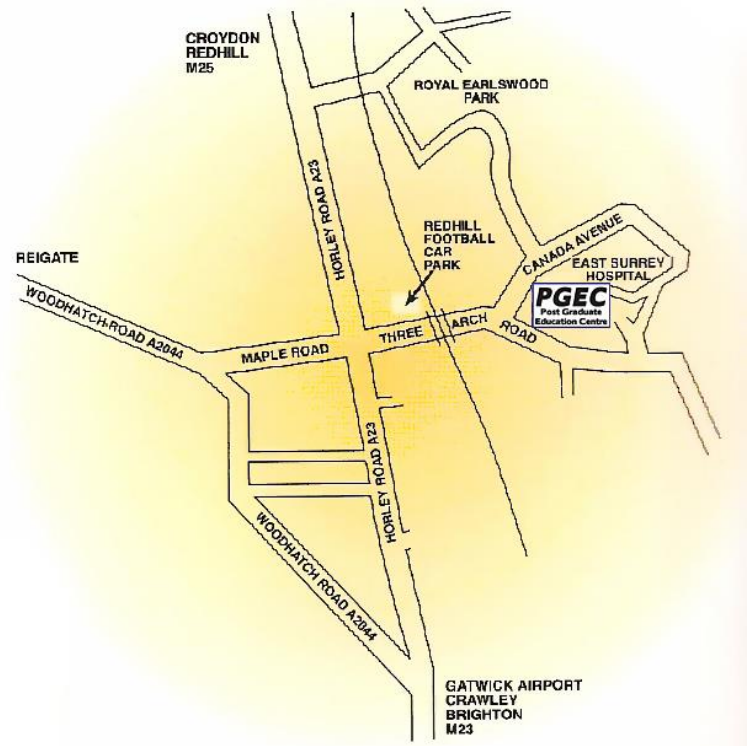

The Postgraduate Centre, situated in the Trust Headquarters, is the first building on the right as you turn into the hospital grounds.

From London via A23 through Redhill

Follow A23 to Redhill. At the Lombard roundabout turn left into Princess Way. Proceed to next roundabout and go straight over into Marketfield Way. At the next roundabout bear left and follow A23 for about 2 miles passing through three sets of traffic lights. At the fourth set, turn left (signed A&E) into Three Arch Road and continue to the hospital in Canada Avenue.

The Postgraduate Centre, situated in the Trust Headquarters, is the first building on the right as you turn into the hospital grounds.
